

On the Nativity – “The Grace of God Appeared”

The Grace of God appeared.

Can you see Grace?

Can you see the face that appeared this day that He may be revered and feared in hearts that treasure up these things?

Ponder deeply the Word of the Lord which, sharper than a double-edged sword, penetrated between soul and spirit and dwelt within the womb of Mary.

The sword that pierced her own soul as well, in His Incarnation began His descent to hell to redeem for Himself a people purified and made alive and given new eyes that with clear sight they may appertain and proclaim:

the grace of God appeared.

So with angels let us sing: “Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those of good will.”

Do you see Grace there in David’s town?

See how the Son of God came down from the realms of heavenly glory angels forever singing His story in the place where He is always proclaimed Holy, Holy, Holy heaven and (now) earth are filled with His glory.

See the grace of God appear in a babe wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger, a babe in imminent danger from the powers of false kings and counterfeit thrones blind to the great light that shone so bright.

Rulers walking in darkness cannot see the light.

Mary gave birth and the dragon fought her.

Rulers commanded and innocents were slaughtered.

Bethlehem’s children became the first martyrs who by the blood of the Lamb and their wordless testimonies already proclaimed the Lord’s triumph o’er His enemies.

See the great things He’s done for you and me, for those who were full and for those who yearned for the simple and the learned, for the rich and the poor for the righteous, the pure, the bruised and the sore.

See that for all of us, he has been mindful of his servants the humble lifted high and the hungry satisfied the lepers made clean and sinners justified by this grace of God which appeared to establish justice to burn our weapons and battle clothes to make an end to war and bring soldiers home the rulers' strength is broken by the Word which was spoken in the birth of One who is God and Man

See the mysterious revelation of a Divine Plan: Perfect Humanity who loves His enemies whose mercy is justice and whose justice is mercy Perfect Divinity who sets blind captives free Proclaiming truly the Spirit of the Lord is upon Me.
 Perfect Creator who enters creation as a babe destined to rule the nations – So with angels and prophets let us sing: “Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those of good will.”
 for the grace of God appeared that He might be revered and feared as Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace

Can you see this Grace?

Angels appeared in glory to shepherds in awe of the tidings that their ears heard.
 Heavenly messengers gave the word, ‘Go, see Grace’.

See the place where this babe lies
 The Son of God uttering infant's cries
 Can you follow the angels' command?
 Go to bright Bethlehem
 you who hear the angels' anthem, your Redeemer's life behold
 Watch him there on this night so cold.
 Hasten to the place where He was born,
 there adore at his feet,
 mark that miracle of time,
 The Son's Incarnation complete.
 So with angels and prophets and shepherds let us sing:
 “Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those of good will.”

Peace. Peace, meaning not only absence of war but wholeness and healing, and all of life restored: stillness where creation groans family restored and friends for the alone, the life guaranteeing creation's flourishing a fountain of life forever nourishing the bread of life giving joy perfected wounds are healed and the dead resurrected all through the union of man and divinity mysteriously present within this baby.

Can you see Him? Can you see Grace, laying in his mother's arms?
 Splendor and majesty are before him strength and beauty come forth from Mary's womb so with angels and prophets and shepherds and now with blessed Mary let us sing: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those of good will."
 for the grace of God appeared, and we who walked in darkness have seen a great light Christ once wrapped in great love in his mother's womb was crucified, wrapped in cloths and laid in a tomb.
 But the grace of resurrection was seen by many:
 the apostles, disciples, and even Mary, witnessed the glory of resurrection,
 from the empty tomb to his triumphal ascension.
 Now hidden in heaven and removed from sight the Church waited and waits to once again see grace.
 And now with them we wait, we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our Savior, Jesus.

Can you see Grace? How marvelous that as we wait
 He gives a sign of his presence with us.
 For at this table the grace of God appears, strengthens our faith, and dissolves all fears.
 So come to this table, receive the Word, eat bread, drink wine, and be transformed into living the likeness of the Lord.
 The Holy Spirit shall come upon you and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you and the One within you will be called the Son of God. and you will bear forth into this world the Word made flesh in your speech and zeal for good deeds, that by all peoples grace will be seen.
 So with all saints and angels and heaven and earth let us sing:
 "Glory to God in the highest
 and on earth peace to those of good will."
 For the Grace of God indeed appears.

In the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
